DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

Theresa Smith,

Case No. _____

Plaintiff,

COMPLAINT

v.

The Lincoln National Life Insurance Company,

Defendant.

Comes now the Plaintiff, and for her cause of action against the Defendant, states and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. Jurisdiction is conferred under 29 U.S.C. § 1132(e) as Plaintiff's claim is governed by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA), 29 U.S.C. § 1001 et seq.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff is a Minnesota resident.

3. Defendant, The Lincoln National Life Insurance Company ("Lincoln"), is an insurance company that is licensed to do business in the State of Minnesota.

FACTS

4. At all times material herein the Plaintiff was employed by Presbyterian Homes and Services ("Presbyterian").

5. Presbyterian maintained an employee benefit plan and Plaintiff was a participant in that plan for long-term disability.

6. Presbyterian's long-term disability plan underwrote and funded its liabilities under the long-term disability (LTD) plan with a policy of insurance underwritten and provided by Lincoln.

7. Defendant Lincoln is a fiduciary under the Plan.

8. That as a result of various physical disabilities the Plaintiff qualified for disability benefits under the LTD Plan and continues to be disabled.

However, Plaintiff then received a denial letter from Lincoln dated November 4, 2015, stating that no additional LTD benefits would be paid. Plaintiff submitted an Administrative Appeal to Lincoln on April 29, 2016. Plaintiff received a denial letter dated July 26, 2016. Following a second Administrative Appeal submitted on January 18, 2017, Plaintiff received another denial letter dated March 13, 2017.

10. The decision to deny the LTD benefits is in violation of the Plan, a violation of ERISA, and a violation of the fiduciary duties owed by the Defendant to the Plaintiff.

11. That as a direct and proximate result of the Defendant's actions, Plaintiff has sustained damages based on benefits due under the Plan.

12. That as a direct and proximate result of Defendant's actions, Plaintiff has been forced to incur costs and attorney's fees and, under the terms of ERISA, is entitled to be reimbursed by the Defendant for said fees and costs.
